TUESDAY NOTES

January 12, 2010

PRINCIPAL'S PAGE

Dear Parents and Families,

Show me your ways, O Lord, teach me your paths; guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Savior, and my hope is in you all day long. Remember, O Lord, your great mercy and love, for they are from of old. Psalm 25:4-6

God's ways can be so perplexing sometimes! I often have to stop and pray, "Lord, I don't understand what's going on right now or how it can possibly turn out for the good. I trust you to carry me through this and give me the strength and the patience I need." Sometimes God grants me the wisdom afterward to see and understand His plan and sometimes I don't have the privilege of knowing why it happened. In those times I have to remember the analogy I once heard about the needlework picture; that God sees the beautiful side – perfect and complete, but here on earth, we see the underside of the picture, all knotted and blurry and hardly a picture at all. When we join our Father in Heaven, we'll get to see that beautiful side and we'll finally understand why each stitch was necessary. What a glorious day that will be!
